This community was greatly started Monday afternoon to learn of the death of Deacon George Clinton Bicknell, which occurred at his home at about six o'clock Mr. Bicknell had been a sufferer with heart trouble for some years, but seemingly was in his usual state of health had passed on to the next life. Deacon Bicknell had been a resident of this town nearly all his adult life and of this village for the past 23 years. He has been enior deacon of the Congregationa Church for many years and one of most faithful and liberal supporters. He was one of our most public spirited citizen, always ready to further the best interest of church and community "level headed" counsel and unstinted aid, and his friendly, cheerful presence will be profoundly missed by every one who knew him. Mr. Bicknell was one of the few surviving Civil War veterans, serv-ing with the 7th Vt. Reg., Vols., for five years and was 15 years of age. He is sur-vived by his wife. Adelice Rice Bicknell. They observed their golden wedding an niversary a year ago last April. Chauncey Bicknell, a daughter, Florence Bicknell Moran, and six grandchildren also survive.
